Subject: "Oddkin", Inquisitorial agent
Author: Ordo Hereticus scribe [REDACTED]	++ref: [REDACTED] ++
+++ Inquisitor,  The target [Designation "Oddkin"] is a competent inquisitorial agent. Trained by the Astra Militarum in advanced terror warfare he has seen action in several sectors. -Last known picture of subject- His ability to disguise himself and to use any means necessary to complete his mission has been noted by the inquisition. He was recruited after killing the arch impostor and heretic General Kovachs on Archona IV with a kitchen knife, and then disguised himself as the General he ordered a full on assault on his own palace. He escaped via a hidden pathway and got away before the army of General Kovachs annihilated itself. Shortly after he was whiskered away by the [REDACTED] and declared deceased. Further inquisitorial engagements are unknown, but he is currently in the employ of Inquisitor Lord Baltasar. His real name is not known, but his homeworld is said to be [REDACTED]. According to some sources has been noted to carry an unknown object that may contain advanced dark age technology. To what purpose this object can be used is unclear. Currently he has been sent to Gathalamor to ascertain what is the source of the persistent rumours of and to find an elusive Pilgrim. He has since disappeared and we suspect that he has gone rogue. +++
Addendum: Oddkin is has been known as the man with many faces. Be aware!	++Thought for the day++ "Doubt forms the path to damnation"
